

CRIMINAL THINKING AND BEHAVIOR

| | |
|-----------------------|---|
| OPEN TO CHANGE Unit G | Core change-focused risk factors program model. Helps identify feelings, issues, and risk factors, reducing resistance, and beginning the process of personal awareness and change. Addresses delinquency, criminal thinking and behavior, and gang involvement issues. Key element in reducing in-facility conflict and violence. |
| OPEN TO CHANGE Unit H | Resources in this general delinquency unit increase self-awareness with the specific objective of decreasing discomfort with the old choices. Addresses delinquency, criminal thinking and behavior, and gang involvement issues. Key element in reducing in-facility conflict and violence. |
| Criminal thinking | This unit guides the participants in identifying and addressing selected areas of dysfunctional or criminal thinking. It includes common areas of dysfunctional thinking, challenges critical defense mechanisms, and provides multiple problem solving scenarios for analysis and practice. |